COULDN'T HIT THE BALL. The Reason for the Nationals' Defeat Other Games Yesterday.

Columbus won a game from Washingto yesterday by batting and also by playing a wonderful game in the field. The score was 7 to 2, and yet there was as much excitement about the game as if the home team had won There was a very large crowd present, fully 3,000 people, a large part of it being composed of "rain check" folks, however. The patteries were Foreman and McGuire and Gastright and O'Connor. Foreman did very well and showed good head, but somehow or other the other ide managed to hit him when they wanted men to tally, and they had no difficulty in keeping shead throughout the game. The result rested entirely upon the non-ability of the home team to bat. The local men were in hard luck, for their chances to score were continually nipped by the almost phenomenal work of the visitors in the field, no less than five double plays being made by that side alone, while Washington made two.

THE UMPIRE WEARENED. The umpiring of Jones was uneven. He late public.

The National Reform Press Association also held a meeting. and particularly in the fifth inning, when he attempted to put O'Connor out of the game and allowed half of the Columbus team to talk to him until he weakened and let the man continue to play. O'Connor said enough to have cost him at least $500 in fines. When he had achieved his victory over Jones he swaggered around, and as he took his place behind the bat he yelled out that it took a mighty good man to put him out of a game and he didn't see the man around. The crowd came to the conclusion that this Columbus team is the "toughest" nine that has been here this year, and that Jones is either afraid of it or unaware of his powers. Columbus scored in the first inning, two run being tallied on a hit by Wheelock, a wild pitch, a sacrifice by Crooks, singles by McTampitch, a sacrifice by Crooks, singles by McTammany and O'Connor, and an error by Smith. In the second the home team had its first dose of bad luck. McGuire went to first on balls and a double play resulted when Hatfield hit to Kuchne. Then, with no one on the bases, Smith hit for three bags, but was left on third. In this inning, with one out, Duffee hit for a base and stole second and third, being called safe on very questionable right in both cases. Gastright struck out and Wheelock went to first on balls, but Crooks struck out. In the fourth balls, but Crooks struck out. In the fourth another double play killed the chance of a score for Washington. Smith scored in the fifth on a base on balls, a smith scored in the fifth on a base on balls, a passed ball and a three-base hit by Foreman into left center that took a lucky bound. There was but one out, but Wheelock took Beecher's line hit on the fly and threw Foreman out at third. Columbus scored one in their half. Wheelock reached first on Hatfield's fumble and was sent to second by Creek's sentifies. reached first on Hatheld's fumble and was sent to second by Crooks' sacrifice. Foreman caught him off second very neatly. With two out McTammany went to first on balls and stole second, and scored on Sneed's hit. Two more were scored in the sixth. Kuehne hit for a base, and Lehane sacrificed. Duffee found a ball that he liked and sent it humming into left center for four bases making at removal was hit. center for four bases, making a tremendous hit. No attempt was made to throw him out at all. Then Gastright hit safely, but the next two men struck out. THE SEVENTH.

Each side made one in the seventh. For Washington McQuery made a three-bagger that hit the left fence and bounded around in a that hit the left fence and bounded around in a very lucky manner. O'Connor would not play up to the bat, but McQuery refused to accept chances to run in and the catcher finally went up. McGuire went to first on balls and Hatfield hit for a base, scoring McQuery. McGuire going to second, with no one out. Smith sent a hot ball to Wheelock, who handled it so neatly that a double play resulted. Foreman struck out and McGuire was left on third. For Columbus McTammany hit for two bases and reached third on a piece of luck, the ball that Beecher threw in striking a brick. Sneed filed to Burns and McTammany scored. O'Connor to Burns and McTammany scored. O'Connor went to first on balls, but was doubled when Kuehne hit to Hatfield.

Pensions for School Teachers.

At the meeting of the debating society of the Young Men's Christian Association Saturday evening the following question was discussed: "Resolved, That all school teachers over fifty years of age who have taught more than twenty-five years should be pensioned by act of Congress at a rate of $10 per month." Mr. O. W. Goodwin opened the contest in the affirmative and was ably supported by Messrs. Downing, Drew, Miller and Tingwold. A. D. Spangler opened the negative and had the valuable assistance of Messers. Wolverton, Freeman, Hart, Paul, Leonard and Wescott. The visiting ladies were appointed judges and their decision was unanimous in favor of the negative. The subject was skilfully handled by both sides and the humorous strain developed by several speakers furnished great amusement to the audience. Mr. Tingwold entertained the society with a brief oration on "Economics."

by Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention Yesterday afternoon at Cincinnati was devoted by the delegates to the national union conference to conferences of the various state delegations, they being, for the most part, harmonious in their deliberations. The Iowa delegation adopted a resolution urging the nomination of a full independent ticket next June, and telegraphed its decision to prominent men of the state in sympathy with the movement.

Kansas has nearly eight hundred persons here, representing seven organization, viz: The Farmers' Alliance, the Citizens' Alliance, the people's party, the Knights of Labor, the National Industrial Allance, the anti-monopoly party and the single-tax men. There was a large attendance of these delegates at Dexter Hall. Congressman-elect Olds presided. A motion was adopted to select two persons from each organization represented. During the discussion Mr. McGrath called attention to the fact that there had been too little attention paid to the cities and the attention to the fact that there had been too little attention paid to the cities and the interests of wage workers and urged that the Knights of Labor should be properly recognized by the meeting. Considerable discussion followed.

The Farmers' Alliance also had a meeting, Mr. McGrath presiding. J. T. Little and S. H. Snyder were chosen to represent the Citizens' Alliance, and S. H. Chase and Levi Dumboldt the people's party. The other names were not made public.

A BIG BOW EXPECTED.

James Shedd and Eugene Brown, delegates from Nebraska to the Cincinnati Farmers' Alliance, in an interview said they anticipated the biggest kind of a row during the proceedings at the third party gathering.

"President Livingstone of the New York alliance will be a delegate," said Mr. Brown, "and the western states will object to his presence in the convention hall. They are opposed to him on account of the stand he took during the Peffer-Ingalls fight. He came out openly for Ingalls, repudiated the Kansas alliance and was compelled to leave Topeka to escape rough handling at the hands of the Kansas alliance men. Livingstone told some pretty bad stories about the western alliances when he returned to New York, and resolutions condemning the way the Kansas alliance conducted its affairs were passed by the New York and Pennsylvania alliances. The Kansas men have not forgotten the Livingstone episode and resolutions to oust the New York president from the convention hall are already in the hands of some of the Kansans." ance, in an interview said they anticipated the IGNATUS DONNELLY CAUSES A SPLIT. The attempt of Ignatius Donnelly to take a delegation to the conference at Cincinnati which would back him as a unit as the alliance candidate for President of the United States has split the alliance party in Minnesota into two bitterly warring factions, one of which is certain to withdraw from the party. Two weeks ago Mr. Donnelly, as president of the Minnesota alliance, called a meeting of the ex-ecutive committee, which chose nine delegates to Cincinnati, with Mr. Donnelly as chairman. to Cincinnati, with Mr. Donnelly as chairman. This action was denounced by the state central committee, which claimed the right to send delegates to Cincinnati, and yesterday that body met and named a complete delegation, composed of Sidney M. Owen, the late alliance candidate for governor; Miss Eva McDonald, the state lecturer, and one member from each congressional district. Both sets of delegates left for Cincinnati last night, and each will ask recognition as the rightful representative of Minnesota.

OPPOSED TO DR. MOREHOUSE.

His Election as Secretary of the Baptist Home Missionery Society to Be Fought. An effort will be made at the annual meeting of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, which meets in Cincinnati tomorrow, to prevent the re-election of Dr. Henry L. to $2,800.

An investigation of the whole affair by the executive board vindicated Mr. Morehouse from all taint of dishonesty in the matter. Mr. Morehouse claimed that the only irregularity he was guilty of in the matter was to have loaned a small sum of the income to Dr. Pope to help him out of a residence to income. to help him out of a predicament arising from stock speculation. The friends of Mr. More-house have the greatest faith in him and say they will strongly support him for re-election, while his enemies are just as determined that he shall not be again entrusted with the office. A lively fight is looked forward to.
